HEAD OF BOLSHEVIKI ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Assert Withdrawal Due Only to Prevent Bloodshed in Streets of City

TWO THOUSAND KILLED. London, Nov. 15.—Two thousand persons have been killed in street fighting in Moscow Tuesday afternoon according to reports brought by travelers arriving from the Swedish frontier as forwarded by dispatches from Stockholm.

Stockholm, Nov. 15.—According to press reports travelers who arrived yesterday in Haparanda, Sweden, from Finland, say rumors are current there that Petrograd is in flames.

Lieutenant Colonel Mouraviev, commander of the forces defending Petrograd, according to an undated dispatch from Haparanda to the Dagens Nyheter has issued the following proclamation:

"Kerensky has circulated a false rumor that the troops in Petrograd have gone over voluntarily to the provisional government. The troops of the free Russian people are not retreating, and are not surrendering. They only have evacuated Gatchina in order to avoid useless bloodshed and take a defensive position near Petrograd. The position now is strong enough to resist forces ten times as strong as Kerensky. Our troops are in the best of spirits. Order and calm prevail in Petrograd."

"Besides the cruiser Aurora, the warships Sarg and Svobodny, the training ship Afrika, and six torpedo boats of the Baltic fleet have arrived from Helsingfors and anchored in the Neva near the Nicholas bridge in the center of Petrograd, whence they command the entire capital. The crews are made up of Bolsheviks."

WILSON CALLS BIG FOUR MEN TO CONFERENCE

Leaders of Railroad Orders Summoned to the White House on November 22nd.

PATRIOTISM AHEAD OF PRIVATE INTERESTS

Washington, Nov. 14.—Once again, President Wilson has undertaken personally to prevent a general strike. He has called the heads of the four great railroad brotherhoods to meet him in conference Nov. 22, and will insist that patriotism be put ahead of private interest; that there be no attempt to handicap the operation of a vital part of the nation's war making machinery.

The president is confident that nothing unpatriotic will be done but if the necessity arises he is prepared to take the required steps to prevent a tie-up of transportation.

In announcing today the coming conference with the union chiefs, Wm. L. Chambers, chairman of the board of mediation and conciliation, made public a letter from the president which said:

"It is inconceivable to me that patriotic men should now, for a moment, contemplate the interruption of transportation which is so necessary to the safety of the nation. The last thing I wish to contemplate would be the possibility of being obliged to take any unusual measures to operate the railways and I have so much confidence that the men you are dealing with will appreciate the patriotic motives underlying your efforts that I shall look forward with assurance to your success."

At the time of the threatened strike averted by the eight hour law last year, it was understood that the government had developed plans for emergency operation of the railroads, if that became necessary. At that time the United States was not at war.

President Wilson's letter was sent to Mr. Chambers two weeks ago, before the mediation board chairman left for Cleveland Ohio to confer with the union leaders. It is understood the conference held there were produced of substantial agreements, but that the engineers, conductors, trainmen and firemen were unwilling to commit themselves unconditionally to arbitration, although welcoming mediation.

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE FOSTER IS DEAD

Washington, Nov. 15.—John W. Foster, former minister to China, dean of the American diplomatic corps, and father-in-law of Secretary Lansing, died here this morning after a long illness. He at one time was Secretary of State.

The immediate cause of the venerable diplomat's death was asthmatic trouble, although his advanced years and failing health had given his family great concern for more than a year.

Funeral services for Mr. Foster will be held here Saturday, and the burial will be at his old home, Evansville, Ind.

BRITISH MAKE GREAT DEFENSE ON FLENISH LINE

Bavarian Troops Make First Real Effort to Hold Passchendaele Village

ALLIES FACE HEAVY BARRAGE OF ARTILLERY

With the British Army in Belgium, Wednesday, Nov. 14.—The forces of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria have made their first, pretentious effort to regain Passchendaele village in accordance with the edict of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, that the place should be recaptured, and have failed.

The enemy's attack was made yesterday afternoon with large forces, but the assaulting troops were hurled back after a grim struggle, leaving the British line before Passchendaele intact.

Barrage of Artillery. The main attack was met by a barrage of artillery, but answering to that famous discipline ingrained by Prussian military rule, pushed through this rain of death, and reached the British front line. A sanguinary struggle followed at close quarters. The Germans battled doggedly, but the British soldiers flung themselves upon the enemy with such ferocity that he was compelled to give ground, and finally retired, leaving men dead.

Terrific Bombardment. The enemy attack was prefaced by a terrific bombardment which began at four A. M. yesterday.

All day Passchendaele and vicinity were shelled continuously by the concentrated German artillery, while the British heavies and field guns replied with a violent bombardment of the enemy's position. No such artillery duel had occurred along the British front for weeks. For hours it was maintained by both sides with a drum fire intensity that shook the country for miles about. Windows in houses for fifty miles away rattled, and in a town seventy-five miles by aeroplane from the scene of activity the detonations could be plainly heard.

WALLA WAIVES EXAMINATION; IS BOUND OVER

Stipulation that Evidence Taken in Hearing of Chief Shall Apply to Subordinate

NO EFFORT MADE TO GET HALL ON STAND

Counsel on Three Sides of Case Agreed—To be Tried at December Term

WALLA BOUND OVER.

By stipulation of attorneys for the state and the defense Eugene Walla, clerk in the automobile registration department of the secretary of state's office, this afternoon waived a preliminary hearing in Justice Bleckreid's court, and it was agreed that all of the evidence taken in the preliminary hearing of Hall be considered as applying in the examination of Walla. Judge Bleckreid bound Walla over to the district court, and rendered the amount of his bail from $2,500 to $2,000, the same bondmen continuing.

Both of these cases will come up at the December term of district court, beginning December 5, with Judge W. L. Nuesse presiding.

Hall was in court but no effort was made to place him on the stand.

The hearing of Eugene M. Walla, clerk in the automobile registration department of the secretary of state's office, on a charge of embezzling $2,400 of the state's funds, set for 10 o'clock this morning, was again postponed to 2 o'clock this afternoon because of the continued illness of the defendant, who, as his counsel stated yesterday, is suffering from a nervous breakdown, induced by a "bad scare."

The state has subpoenaed for the Walla hearing practically all the witnesses who appeared against Secretary of State Thomas Hall, including Mr. Hall. It is not believed, however, that all of these witnesses will be put on, as their testimony would be practically identical with that given in the Hall hearing. W. O. Edwards, one of the state's important witnesses against Hall, will not be here to appear against Walla, as he left at noon today for Helena, Mont., to make an investigation of the Bankers' Insurance Co. of Helena for the state examiners' office.

It is not certain that Walla will face examination. It is generally believed today that he will waive a preliminary hearing and go direct to district court to face the charge against him.

SUB CAMPAIGN OF TEUTONS HAS BEEN THWARTED

Most Momentous News Since War Commenced Says Leading British Expert

GREAT BRITAIN CAN EASILY MAKE UP LOSS

Loss for Last Week Less Than Usual Wreck Rate in Piping Times of Peace

New York, Nov. 15.—Pollen, noted British war expert, has made the following statement to the Associated Press on the submarine warfare: "Anything unsatisfactory in the military and political situation in Europe is balanced by the extraordinary news that the German submarine campaign has broken down altogether. The submarine is defeated. This is the most momentous event since the United States declared war. It means we can all stay in and that America can really come in."

"Six months ago, shipping was being destroyed, according to some authorities, at the rate of 9,000,000 tons per annum. Had this loss continued, the Germans had the right to expect not, indeed military victory, but a peace that would mean something much less than defeat. This was Germany's only hope, and was the Allies' only anxiety; for everyone, including the German high command, that with sea communication reasonably safe, the military defeat of the German army was certain."

"In the first fortnight of November, the rate of losses of British tonnage of ships greater than 1,600 tons each has fallen to about one million tons a year. The present ship-building capacity of Great Britain alone can make this loss good in less than eight months. At the rate America, Great Britain, and Japan are striving to attain, we should replace this loss in less than eight weeks. The rate of loss for the last week is actually less than the annual total of wrecks in peace times. It is an amazing development. It is not to be expected that losses can remain as low as this. They must fluctuate. But they should never cause us serious uneasiness again."

VALLEY CITY NORMAL STUDENTS SUCCESSFUL IN TWIN ELOPEMENT

Two Couples Come to Bismarck and are Married Before Parents Arrive on Scene

Four Valley City normal students were made two Bismarck on Wednesday afternoon just before Sheriff James J. Kelley of Barnes county and the parents of two of the principals arrived in the capital city to halt the ceremony. The parties to the successful elopement were Harold B. Rude, formerly of Minneapolis, Minn., who gave his residence as Bismarck in applying for a license, and Miss Beatrice M. Witte of Mankato, Minn., and Lionel Permer of Bismarck, formerly of Valley City, and Miss Esther I. Rich of Tower City. They came to Bismarck on Tuesday evening, and procured marriage licenses at County Judge Bradley's office about noon Wednesday. In the afternoon they appeared before Rev. W. J. Hutcheon and were married. About that minute they arrived in the city Sheriff Kelley of Barnes county, Charles S. Rich, father of Mrs. Richmer, and A. J. Halstrom, father of Mrs. Rude, intent upon stopping the elopement. They immediately communicated with State's Attorney F. E. McCurdy, who called up the county judge's office and discovered that licenses already had been issued. Last night the newlyweds and the bride's parents, with Sheriff Kelley, slept under the same roof at the Grand Pacific, and today everyone appeared happy and disposed to make the best of things.

GERMAN FIRE CAUSES MORE AMERICAN CASUALTIES ALONG THE FRENCH FRONT

When the Italians draw their line back to the Piave River they will have shortened it to 60 miles of front, a very small portion of what they had to defend when the Austro-Germans first began their drive. The first front is a heavy black line numbered 1 in the map above. The second line extended through Udine, the third, along the Tagliamento River, from which the Italians retired after preparing for a stand on the Piave, numbered 4 in the map.

Villa Holds Post on Mexican Border Opposite Camp at Presidio, Texas

Ojinaga, Mexico, Nov. 15.—Francisco Villa again holds a post on the Mexican border this morning, and the Mexican Federal army slept last night in an internment camp at Presidio, Texas, opposite here.

Following a two hours' assault of Ojinaga which started at sunset last night, Villa followers occupied the plaza at 8 o'clock after the Federal forces in command of Juan Cordova evacuated and came to the American side of the line.

The Villa forces under Martin Lapez were driven out of the town yesterday morning. It was estimated today that more than 200 were killed on both sides.

BUT ONE STATE COST LESS FOR DRAFT SERVICE

North Dakota Complimented on Patriotic Frugality and Care in Building Army

EXPENSE OF SELECTING MEN $272 PER CAPITA

But one state in the union handled the registration and first draft at a lower per capita cost than North Dakota. Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder advises Adjutant General Fraser in a letter complimenting North Dakota on "her patriotic frugality and care."

The cost of the draft in North Dakota was estimated by General Fraser at $14,000, or $272 per capita, and was so reported to the provost marshal general.

General Crowder replying says: "In preparing a statement as one of the outstanding proofs that the selective method of raising an army is most to be preferred than the volunteer method, I have called upon the several states for an analysis of their expenditures reduced to a unit cost of inducting men into the service through the selective service system. It is interesting to note that the reports from the states vary quite widely, and I know that you will be proud to hear that the item of lowest cost in any state in the union. Since this tabulation of real cost will be submitted to congress and through that medium to the public, North Dakota will receive appropriate recognition for her patriotic frugality and care."

Commenting upon the handling of the draft in North Dakota, General Fraser today paid a high compliment to the patriotism and efficiency of county officials serving on draft boards, who, with a very few exceptions, have submitted no bill for their services, and who have worked day after day until far into the night, keeping up their official duties and caring for the draft detail. A list of all these boards is to be compiled by the adjutant general, who will give the names of those who served their country without cost in this crisis, as well as those who made a charge for their services.

JAMESTOWN COMPLAINT TO BE HEARD BY RAIL BOARD AT CARRINGTON

Allegation that Western Electric Co. is not Giving Service to be Taken Up

The complaint of the Jamestown city commission against the Western Electric Co., whom it charges with asking too much for heat, light and power, and with supplying insufficient service to its consumers, will be heard by the North Dakota railway commission at its statutory hearing in Carrington on December 1, 2, and 3. It was announced this morning by Secretary Calderhead. The commission has received a somewhat similar complaint from H. A. Mackoff, village attorney for Leifield, who alleges that the George S. Chrysler Light & Power Co. is not giving adequate service and asks an investigation of its books to determine whether it can not operate day and night or at least all night.

HUGHES ELECTRIC MUST SHOW BOOKS

The state tax commission has the right to examine the books or records of any corporation to determine the valuation of the property, the earnings, and expenses, and general financial condition of the corporation, according to an order signed today by Judge W. L. Nuesse of the Sixth judicial district. The order was signed in the case of the North Dakota tax commission vs. the Hughes Electric company of Bismarck.

Judge Nuesse in his order orders that E. A. Hughes, Robert W. Dalton, C. R. Asness appear before the tax commission at their office at the capital building in the city of Bismarck on the 27th day of November, 1917, at two o'clock in the afternoon, and then and there to testify as to such matters as they may have knowledge of, concerning the value of the property, earnings, expenses, and general financial condition of the Hughes Electric company and to bring with them the minute book, ledger, stock book, inventory book and blue prints or books of the engineering department, showing the location and the cost of the physical property of the Hughes Electric company.

ITALIANS CHECK HUNS AT THE RIVER PIAVE

Reports from Petrograd Conflict Nicholas Czar of Siberia

THREE KILLED. Washington, Nov. 15.—A revised report from General Pershing today of the German raid of American trenches November 2, puts the killed at three, wounded at eleven, and missing, eleven. The first report was two killed, five wounded and 12 missing.

First Lieutenant William H. McLaughlin is added to the list of wounded. Private William P. Grigsby, of Louisville, Ky., previously reported as a prisoner, is in the hands of the Germans, also is among the wounded. The list of three killed is unchanged.

(By Associated Press) American soldiers have carried out a successful ambush of a German party in No Man's Land on the western front, killing and wounding a number of the enemy, while German shells have caused a number of casualties in the American line.

An American patrol, one night recently, lay in the mud waiting for an enemy party for which they had arranged an ambush. The German detachment of more than twice the size of the American party fell into the trap. The enemy troops were surprised and did not stop to fight, scurrying away with their dead and wounded. The Americans suffered no casualties.

Artillery firing on the American sector is becoming more effective, and the Germans have been shelling our trenches heavily. A number of Americans have been killed or wounded, one shell dropping into a trench, causing several casualties. American artillerymen also have been behaving the Germans strongly, and it is believed their shells have claimed quite a few victims.

Stop Huns at Piave. Austro-German attempts to cross the Piave have been spooled generally by the Italians, and the party that crossed the Censon has not been able to debouch. Several attempts have been made to cross the river between Censon and the Adriatic but only in the marshland on the coast have the Germans been able to make progress. Here they are under heavy fire, and it is improbable that any large number of Austro-Germans will be able to take advantage of the break because of terrain conditions.

On the line from the Piave to Lake Garda, the Italians have retired before the river and the region northeast of Asiago reducing the bulge in the Italian line. Austro-German pressure here and around Asiago continues heavy.

Remove Art Treasures. All the movable art treasures have been taken from Venice, and the cities of Vicenza, and Treviso also have been shorn of their works of art for safety in the event of Austro-German success in breaking the Piave line.

Germany's submarine campaign apparently is losing its effectiveness, as British losses during the last week were only one ship over 1,600 tons and five under that weight. This was the poorest week the submarines have had since the beginning of ruthless warfare in February.

Although Petrograd has not been in communication with the Nystad cable station in Finland, for several days, reports from Scandinavian sources that Premier Kerensky has gained control of the capital. Reports come also from Sweden that the Bolsheviks maintain their hold on Petrograd, and are preparing for a stout resistance against the forces of Kerensky, and General Korniloff and Kalidines.

Ask Lloyd George to Explain. In Moscow, the Bolsheviks apparently have been overpowered, and unofficial reports received in Copenhagen going to the effect that General Korniloff has taken the Kremlin, where the extremists were besieged several days ago. Another rumor says that Siberia has announced its independence, and proclaimed former Emperor Nicholas as Emperor.

The proposed new inter-Allied war council has provoked a near crisis in British politics. Challenged in the House of Commons yesterday to explain his Paris speech on the needs for such a council, Premier Lloyd read the terms of the agreement, which he declared made it clear that the council was merely advisory. Formal debate on the interpellation will begin in the House next Monday.

Negotiations for the formation of a new French cabinet are proceeding.

TOWNLEY HEARING AGAIN POSTPONED. The adjourned bankruptcy hearing of A. C. S. Townley, which had been set for 2 o'clock this afternoon in Referee H. P. O'Hare's office, has been again postponed until 2 o'clock December 19.

SHARP CRISIS GROWS OUT OF PARIS CONFAB

Lloyd George Confronted by One of the Critical Situations of the War

VIOLENTLY ATTACKED BY OPPOSITION PRESS
Possibly Vote of Want of Confidence May Drive Ministry from Office

London, Tuesday, Nov. 13.—Premier Lloyd George, on his return from his hurried trip to consult and hear the great British statesmen, has been hit by the sharpest crisis of his career since he became premier. The crisis, one which may result possibly in a vote of want of confidence by parliament which would be followed automatically by his resignation.

No action taken by any British government since the beginning of the war has caused such a maelstrom of criticism, speculation and symptoms of uneasiness as the announcement of the formation of an international war council, of great Britain, France and Italy, with a military committee representing the three nations, which latter is to be in constant session at Versailles. The question being asked are whether such a vital change is necessary, whether it will bring effective control of the campaign and particularly how enter has had what in Europe is called a bad press.

Hostile Press Comment.
The comments on his action range from violent attacks by the Morning Post and the Daily Mail, to a criticism of his conduct in the Times, which is credited with being the chief instrument in the overthrow of the Asquith government in Mr. Lloyd George's interest. It is said that in his weakness is a failure to think out his plans to their logical conclusion, which may be regarded as a considerable way of saving the premier is prone to leave before he looks. The Daily Mail, which recently has been edited by Lord Curzon, a prominent publicist, is now the editor of the National Review, calls the premier a dangerous demagogue and terms the new arrangement "This juggle with the strategy of the war." This is the strongest language printed by English newspapers since the political truce was declared at the beginning of the war.

Mail Moderate Favorable.
The Daily Mail, which is one of Premier Lloyd George's strongest supporters and extremely antagonistic to former Premier Asquith, comments editorially on the premier's Paris speech under the heading, "The Old Gang on the Make" and writes of "The British Manoeuvre" to secure the return to power of Mr. Asquith and his follower, which it says nobody could contemplate without alarm. Nevertheless, it lectures the premier for indulging in loose talk in his Paris speech and while maintaining that he is right on the main point, namely the necessity of unified control and the establishment of a permanent military council, it says:

Some of the premier's emotional assertions were distinctly unfortunate. It was a great error to refer to the German line in the west as an impenetrable barrier or belittle the splendid victories on the Somme as though they were bloody assaults which resulted in nothing, nor was his reference to appalling casualties correct in view of the gigantic scale of the war.

The Daily Mail, which is one of Premier Lloyd George's strongest supporters and extremely antagonistic to former Premier Asquith, comments editorially on the premier's Paris speech under the heading, "The Old Gang on the Make" and writes of "The British Manoeuvre" to secure the return to power of Mr. Asquith and his follower, which it says nobody could contemplate without alarm. Nevertheless, it lectures the premier for indulging in loose talk in his Paris speech and while maintaining that he is right on the main point, namely the necessity of unified control and the establishment of a permanent military council, it says:

"Unprecedented Disaster."
The Daily News says editorially: "We face a crisis which threatens the existence of the alliance and the fate of the war and the world."

It describes the premier's speech as "An unprecedented disaster and the most lamentable blow struck in this war, a blow worth many a victory to the enemy and the equivalent of many a defeat for the allies."

"If encouraging the enemy and depressing ourselves is a crime," continues the Daily News, "this is a crime without a parallel. It invited our allies to distrust us."

After condemning again the scheme for the proposed council, the newspaper continues:

Mr. Lloyd George, having made himself political dictator at home, proposes to make himself military dictator, too. In order to bring this about the allied cause has been subjected to this deadly, reckless thrust. The reputation of the country has been cruelly wronged and its sacrifices belittled and traduced."

Times Less Vehement.
The criticism in the Times are less vehement than those of some of the other newspapers. Nevertheless, it says:

"Least fortunate of all is the impression conveyed by the speech that all the past efforts of the allies have been unwise or wasted. We approve of plain speaking. No people thrive on it so well as the British. But heartening statements must be justified by facts, and the facts in this case are by no means so damning as the premier would make them."

Northcliffe for Premier.
The Globe says that great pressure is being brought on Lord Northcliffe to enter the government, which, it adds, "He alone is deemed capable of bolstering up."

Asquith Interrogates George.
The proposed new inter-allied council was the subject of discussion in the house of commons today, with the former premier, H. H. Asquith, brought the matter before the house by interrogating Premier Lloyd George on the functions of the council.

Mr. Asquith asked the premier whether he would now state the precise functions of the inter-allied council and in particular of its military staff, whether it was proposed that the council, if so advised by its staff, should have power to interfere with and over-ride the opinion on a matter of strategy of the general staff at home and the commander in chief in the field, whether the military staff of the interest of and operation of its payments, or either of them, of its own, whether the ultimate decisions as to the distribution and movement of the various armies in the field was to rest on the council or on the governments represented in it, and whether opportunity would be given to discuss the proposed arrangements and the statements made in connection therewith in the premier's Paris speech. Premier Lloyd George, in replying to Mr. Asquith, said that the best way of answering the question was to read the actual terms of the agreements between the British, French and Italian governments for the creation of a supreme council of the allies.

Mr. Lloyd George announced that the government had set aside Monday for the discussion of his Paris speech and the proposed council.

ALIEN MINERS MAY

Ohio districts hereafter can come in to possession of explosives used in mining only under great restrictions. Secretary Lane today ruled that the new law licensing the use of high explosives which prohibits their possession by enemy aliens extends to subjects of any country allied with an enemy of the United States.

Secretary Lane ruled that where a mining company has its own magazine and a licensed foreman, explosives may be issued to aliens for use on the premises surrounded with certain safeguards. The Austrian or German miner however may no longer buy his own explosives for mining and use them without accountability.

Germans Enticed Into American Ambuscade

With the American Army in France, Nov. 15—American infantrymen exacted a part revenge for a trench raid during a recent night by ambushing a large German patrol in "no man's land," killing or wounding a number of the enemy.

The American patrol, in which there were some Frenchmen, arranged the ambuscade near the German lines on a shell-riddled farm.

After lying in the mud nearly all night the patience of the watchers was rewarded by the sight of a large German patrol, its number more than double that of the Franco-Americans.

The Germans were permitted to pass when the Americans and French men on their flank opened a hot fire from shell craters and other shelters where they were secreted.

The Germans were taken by surprise and looted carrying with them their men who had been hit.

The number of dead and wounded Germans is uncertain, but none of the men in ambush were hit by the bullets the Germans later sent in from a distance.

There were congratulations all around when the Americans and French reentered their trenches.

Patrol work on both sides is becoming more active as is also the artillery fire. The Germans, during one 24-hour period of a recent day, sent over at least three times as many shells as on the first days during which the Americans were entrenched.

Waters Threatens Mill City Banks With loss of North Dakota Funds

State Examiner Wires Minneapolis Institutions Insisting that Garnished Reserves of Flickertail Banking Houses be Released and Drafts Drawn be Honored

START ACTION. Minneapolis, Nov. 15.—The action of W. J. Waters, North Dakota's state bank examiner, in ordering state banks not to pay certain certificates of deposit resulted in filing of suit today against seventy-six North Dakota banks by the Union State bank, tying up all balances in Minnesota banks by garnishment proceedings.

North Dakota banks issued a certificate of deposit last spring in favor of the Bankers' Insurance company of Helena, Mont., which wrote policies insuring farmers a crop return of $7 per acre. Notes were given for premiums. Banks in each locality taking the notes for collection and giving certificates of deposit payable Nov. 1 in return for them. The Union State bank took a number of these certificates of deposit.

A short crop in western North Dakota is said to have made the insurance company some tardy in settling losses. Recently Examiner Waters notified the banks not to pay these certificates until all losses had been paid. This action according to the Union State bank, tied up the funds needed by the insurance company to pay claims. Controversy is removed from the jurisdiction of North Dakota courts by today's action.

Examiner Waters said he was acting in accordance with an opinion of the North Dakota attorney general.

State Bank Examiner J. R. Waters on Wednesday afternoon wired Minneapolis banks that unless North Dakota bank reserves in their possession which have been garnished by the Bankers' Insurance Co. of Helena, Mont., are released, North Dakota banks will be forced to withdraw their funds to this state. This action is a new development in the fight between policyholders and the Bankers' Insurance Co., in which the banks, holding policyholders' notes, given in

TASK OF RECLASSIFYING NAMES OF 65,007 REGISTRANTS BEGUN BY NORTH DAKOTA BOARD TODAY

The real brief of the draft for local registration boards has only begun. Today exemption boards in every county are entered upon the task of classifying according to the new draft regulations every man in their list—week who registered June 5, no matter what may have happened to this registrant in the interim. There are 65,007 registrants in North Dakota, including the 5,272 selected in the first draft, and the approximately 25,000 who were examined, discharged, exempted or rejected. No matter what has been done with the registrant, even though he be already in the service, his card must be classified, and it is a real job.

There are in the neighborhood of 30 classifications and subdivisions. The cards must be indexed to show whether registrant is married or single; whether he has dependents, his age, birthplace, nationality, occupation, color, physical condition and so forth through and almost unlimited number of ramifications.

In Larleigh county there are 1500 cards to be so classified. The local board, which only recently completed a long, hard grind on the first draft, has buckled into this new task uncomplainingly. It has, however, asked that patriotic citizens volunteer their assistance, and probably it will ask the government to furnish one stenographer to take care of the clerical work which heretofore has fallen upon the sheriff and county auditor.

Lawyers Asked to Help.

The members of the legal profession also are asked to make their services available to the legal advisory boards to be constituted by the governor. The governor has been requested to name a number of advisory boards sufficient to place this service within the convenient reach of every resident. The judge of the county court will in most instances be named chairman of such board, and the cooperation and assistance of the American Bar association has been pledged.

SOLDIER WRITES DENIAL OF RUMORS THAT RED CROSS ARTICLES WERE SOLD

Denial of the false rumors, thought to have been started by pro-German propagandists, to the effect that soldiers are being charged for garments made by the Red Cross, was contained in a letter written by Raymond Erickson, a private in the camp at Deming, N. M. The letter was written to the Red Cross Chapter at Morton, Minn.

A portion of this letter follows:

"To the Ladies of the Red Cross, Nels and I received the sweaters today that the Red Cross sent us and I want to thank you for both of us. The sweaters are very comfortable on these cold mornings and are nifty looking also."

"Mother says that you people up there have heard that we soldiers never get the things sent from the Red Cross or if we do get them that we have to pay big prices for them. I don't know anything about such a thing down here. I haven't seen anything from the Red Cross for sale up town here and the other boys that have got sweaters got them from the Red Cross the same as Nels and I."

Other Rumors Run Down

J. T. Garould, director for the Northern Division Bureau of Development traced to its source an effort of German propagandists to discredit the work of the Red Cross. Many women who had made sweaters or socks for the soldiers and had attached notes to the garments received letters, purporting to come from "lumberjacks," declaring that they had purchased the garments from the Red Cross supply stations.

A packer in one of the eastern supply depots of the Red Cross was found to be responsible for the letters. He was a strong German sympathizer. When he found notes attached to garments he detached them and mailed them to his friends, who wrote letters to the Red Cross workers, declaring that they had received the garments designed for soldiers.

Drastic Action

That drastic prosecution of those responsible for the misuse of the Red Cross emblem will be undertaken by the authorities was indicated in a bulletin received at the Northern Division headquarters, announcing the appointment of W. M. Cutcheon as secretary general for the Red Cross.

Many merchants, some of them innocently enough, have made use of the Red Cross emblem for advertising purposes. Their action has helped pro-German propagandists to spread false reports that articles made for the Red Cross are not going to the soldiers but are being placed on sale for the benefit of those in charge of Red Cross work. Time and again these stories have been proven false, but still the rumors are circulated.

With the appointment of a legal advisor the Red Cross will be in a position to prosecute those who use the emblem for advertising purposes and to trace to their source the falsehoods that are becoming current in relation to the organization. Mr. Cutcheon will also act as advisor to the Red Cross in all matters arising in the work. He is a member of the law firm of Byrne, Cutcheon and Taylor of New York. He will serve as counsel for the Red Cross without compensation.

TELLS OF HER FAVORITE EVENING GOWN

TELLS OF HER FAVORITE EVENING GOWN

BY IRENE BORDONI

("Best Dressed Woman on the Stage")

The evening gown which I prefer above all others is made of black spangled net. There is a fish-tail train and a short overskirt reaching to the knees. This overskirt has a scalloped edge. The bodice is low-cut back and front, and also under the arms, suspended by a single band of black jet over each shoulder.

I like this gown because it is strikingly beautiful, and yet very simple. The material is rich, but the style is plain. I also like it because it makes me look slim and because the tail also adds to my height.

The black velvet hat which I wear with this gown is as simple in its way as is the dress. And yet it is quite rich and puts a finishing touch to the whole costume. With this dress I like to carry a black ostrich feather fan. For jewelry, I wear with it nothing more than a long string of pearls.

SOME CRUCIAL MATCHES BILLED FOR SATURDAY

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Followers of Western Conference football (eleven), little the wiser as to the outcome of the 1917 championship struggle as a result of the Nov. 11 games, will be confronted with plenty of "dope" by the time next Saturday's (Nov. 17) contests are decided. The four undefeated conference eleven—Ohio State, Illinois, Chicago and Michigan—will all be in action that day and the meeting of the first two at Columbus will have a direct bearing on the title. Chicago must defeat Minnesota on the latter's home ground to remain in the race and Michigan meeting the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia is relied upon to keep middle west football on the plans gained by its victory over Cornell and Notre Dame's defeat of the Army.

The schedule makers could scarcely have hit upon a more fitting climax to Ohio State's season if they had deliberately planned the outcome of the 1917 games in advance. When the Buckeyes line up against the Illinois they will be starting their final game of the conference season and facing the one team that has the clearest right to dispute the championship with them. Each team has defeated Wisconsin and each has thus far met every test, although Illinois' inability to get better than a scoreless tie with Chicago is regarded by some as a black mark on its record.

The contest should be one of the kind that keeps the average spectator on his feet. Both eleven have been coached in open tactics and scamping end runs, much spectacular racing down the field under punts and promiscuous shooting of forward passes from all sorts of formations are promised. Wisconsin managed to stop the aerial attack of Illinois only to succumb to its driving power. The same team smashed Ohio's running attack and then fell before its forward passing. The one department in which the present champions seem to have a decided advantage is in field goal scoring. "Chick" Harley, versatile star of the Columbus eleven, matched his too against Simpson's at Madison last Saturday and scored a fine placement goal from 43 yards out. Illinois had two good chances to count against Chicago by this method from within the 35 yard mark, but missed both, largely because its line could not give the kicker the time necessary for deliberate aim.

Chicago's surprise team, which successfully stood the first acid test of the season in the Illinois game, probably will have all kinds of trouble keeping its record intact at Minneapolis. Although Minnesota was defeated by Wisconsin, its followers blame over confidence for that result and look for better results Saturday. The teams will have had two weeks of uninterrupted practice to prepare for this game and each is expected to be in top form. Chicago will be without the services of Cochrane, a green but sturdy tackle who was hurt in the

THE WAY IT GOES.

When you hit straight down the fairway
With your best drive of the day
And your mashie shots are hitting
Straight and true
And you get upon the green in three
And your putt is perfect—say
There's nothing like it underneath the blue.

But when you slice the drive at One
And hook a brassie shot
And are smothered in a trap at Number Four,
And miss a three-foot putt at Eight
And all that sort of rot,
(Can you blame a guy for feeling pretty sore?)

OH! HE'S POPULAR.

An indication of Jess Willard's popularity may be seen in the fact that no ham has yet called himself Young Jess Willard.

A man from Germantown refereed a football game in which a soldier team was beaten. The soldiers probably thought they were discriminated against.

The German name for a tank is "Schwergewehrvermittlungsaufbau." Wonder what they would call a stripped Ford in a Ford automobile race.

EGGS IS EGGS.

Oscar Egg has entered the six-day bicycle race at New York. We may now look for bulletins like this: "Egg was strictly fresh after the tenth lap."

A third big league would give tickle scratches a better chance to cop the dough at world series time. Another advantage would be that a few of the nine-ball players who think they ought to manage big league teams would get a chance.

MINUTE MEN OF FOOTBALL...

Does a football coach make a team or do football teams make the coaches?

It is a question often asked when successful football machines are discussed.

"Anyone could win with a team like that," is an expression often heard—but, consider Glenn Warner, "miracle man of football."

For 15 years Warner led the Carlisle Indians and in those 15 years Harvard, Syracuse, Brown, Pennsylvania and other big eastern schools were frequent victims. Three years ago Warner left Carlisle and the Indians have not won a important game since.

Then Warner went to Pittsburgh and backed a team which had been considered mediocre with his ingenuity with the result that Pittsburgh has not lost a game in three years and for two seasons has been considered the best team in the east.

Warner is a striking refutation to the statement that a coach does not make a team.

Glenn S. Warner

Warner is the great inventor of athletics. It was he who thought of the use of a trick sweater under Dillon hid the ball in the Carlisle-Harvard game of 1903 and ran 80 yards for a touchdown.

Warner was the inventor of a trick hurdle which could be touched without knocking it over, giving his hurdlers, who understood it, the advantage of lower hurling.

He is constantly inventing new football plays to throw his opponents off their balance.

From his men Warner demands aggressiveness and absolute obedience. He tells them what to do and they must do it his way. He doesn't care how aggressive they are. In the Cornell-Pitt game in 1915, seven Pittsburgh men were disqualified for roughness.

Warner, perhaps, is responsible for more individual stars than any other coach, and this takes in Stagg and Yost.

Jim Thorpe, the greatest allround athlete of all time, was developed by Warner. So was Mt. Pleasant, one of the best quarterbacks the east has ever seen, and the two Cuyanos. At Pittsburgh he has developed Peck, the great center; Herron, a wonderful end; Hastings, De Hart and McLauren, considered one of the greatest backfields ever grouped on one team.

Warner was a Cornell man and after he left college coached there.

He wasn't much of a success at Cornell and two years later went to Carlisle, where he soon earned the reputation of being one of the first coaches in the country.

GLENN WARNER THIRD BIG LEAGUE SHOULD PROVE PROFITABLE VENTURE

Will a third big league be a profitable investment is the question going around major and minor league territory at this time.

Interested people are pointing to the Federal league and its financial disaster.

If the Federal league with the backing of millionaires like Weeghman and the Wards could not get by, what chance has another organization? they ask.

Here's the difference. The Federal league started with teams in Indianapolis, Chicago, Buffalo, Baltimore, Kansas City, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and St. Louis. Later Newark took the place of Indianapolis.

The Federal league, with Class AA teams was bucking big league opposition in four cities—Chicago, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and St. Louis. Chicago and St. Louis are not three-team cities and neither Brooklyn or Pittsburgh are able to support more than one team. Neither were the minor league cities invaded and the fans for the greater part stuck to the clubs which had been in their cities for years.

But this new Union league, or whatever they call it will be a different proposition. The cities represented will be Indianapolis, Louisville, Toledo, Columbus, Toronto, Newark, Baltimore and Buffalo, cities with a combined population of about 2,800,000, none of which will have opposition ball clubs.

The advantage to be derived by these clubs is that they will not be touched by the baseball draft, which yearly takes many of their best players and that they will be able to draft players from the minor league.

Sport Gossip

Milwaukee, Nov. 15.—"Pinkey" Mitchell, brother of Richie Mitchell, a favorite local lightweight, celebrated his entrance into the ranks of professional boxers by knocking out Joe Homeland, of Chicago, in the second round of a six-round bout. Mitchell floored his opponent three times in the second with wallops to the jaw when Referee Stout put a stop to the affair.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 15.—Jack Leary, first baseman with the championship Indianapolis club, has enlisted Leary telegraphed Jack Hendricks, manager of the club, that he had enlisted in the navy as a yeoman at Waltham, Mass., his home.

During the playing season, Leary expressed a desire to do "his bit." He wanted to enter the officers' training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison at that time and only the fact that his brother joined the Massachusetts National Guard and his mother depended on Jack for her support prevented him from enlisting.

Columbus, Nov. 15.—Bryan Downey, the Columbus welterweight, and Young Denny of New Orleans are ready for the return match of ten rounds which will be decided here Monday night. In their previous encounter, Downey had the better of the New Orleans ringman.

Cleveland, Nov. 15.—War is cutting deeply into the ranks of the Cleveland club of the American league. Nine members of the club have been called for the selective draft, the latest being Herman D. Erry, a catcher.

Indianapolis, Nov. 15.—Should Jack Hendricks, manager of the Indianapolis club, which won the 1917 American association pennant, be selected to succeed Miller Huggins as pilot of the St. Louis National league team.

Herman Bronkie, third baseman of the locals, will be named playing manager to succeed Hendricks, according to the stove-litigues critics.

Bronkie has been field captain of the Indians for the last two seasons. He had some managerial experience in 1913 when he finished the season as pilot of the Toledo association club after Topsy Hartsel had been deposited. Those who are so sure Bronkie will succeed Hendricks in the event of the latter leaving Indianapolis, point to the fact that such an appointment would be good war-time measure, as Bronkie would be playing manager and thus would save the salary of one man. Bronkie came to Indianapolis in 1914, when J. C. McGill purchased the club.

HUNS STRIVE WITH ENERGY TO FORCE PASSAGE THROUGH STRONGHOLDS OF DEFENDERS

Germany Exert Strong Pressure on Italian Lines But Advance Is Checked.

LITTLE HELP CAN COME SHORT OF SEVERAL DAYS

Russian Situation Continues to Be Cloudy—Little Under Way on Western Lines.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Germany's submarine campaign is waning as the result of the stringent measures that have been taken to combat it by the British and American naval forces. Last week only six British merchantmen were sunk and only one of these was a craft exceeding 1,600 tons.

This is the smallest total of vessels sent to the bottom during any week since the submarine warfare began, the lowest previous figures having been 12 merchantmen, eight of them in the category of 1,600 tons and over and four of less than 1,600 tons.

While the Italians continue to hold tenaciously to most of the new line along the Piave river from the Adriatic sea to the region of Feltre, and through the northern hills westward from Feltre to Lake Garda, they again have been compelled to give ground in both sections to the Teutonic allied armies.

Security Rests on Italians.
Upon the shoulders of the Italians alone for several days must rest the security of the Piave line and of historic Venice, for the information has been vouchsafed by Major General Maurice, chief director of military directions at the British war office, that "it would be some days yet before British and French armies can be placed in the field to reinforce the Italians."

Meanwhile the enemy is striving energetically to force passages of the Piave at various points, and again has been successful on the southern reaches in crossing the stream at Crisolo, four miles distant from its mouth and some 20 miles northeast of Venice. Here, however, in the swampy regions, the Teutons are being held by the defending forces from further gains.

To the north around Zenon, where the stream was negotiated by the Austro-Germans on Tuesday, fighting is still in progress, with the Italians holding the upper hand, but not yet having been able to drive back the invaders to the eastern bank of the stream. Still farther north attempts to gain a foothold of the bank of the Piave between Quero and Fenero were repulsed with heavy casualties.

Defenders Fall Back.
In the hilly region, from Tezze on the Trento front, eastward to Feltre, a distance of about 12 miles, the Italians have fallen back before the enemy, who also has gained additional vantage points on the Asiago plateau and the Sette Comuni. On the western bank of Lake Garda the Austro-Germans attempted to push forward southward, but were held by the Italians.

On the western front, in France and Belgium, the situation remains normal, with only heavy bombardments and minor infantry operations in progress on various sectors. The Germans have not renewed their attack against the Canadian in the region of Passchendaele, where on Tuesday night they were repulsed in an attack in which they sought to regain lost ground.

Tigris River Drive.
The British drive against the Turks both along the Tigris river and in Palestine continues successful. Under the pressure of the British the Ottoman forces have now withdrawn their line from 20 to 30 miles north of Tehran, placing them virtually 150 miles northwest of Baghdad on the Tigris.

In Palestine the Turks have been forced back an additional seven miles. It is reported that they have lost half their effectiveness in men killed, wounded or made prisoner, since the operation began. A British torpedo boat destroyer and a small monitor have been sunk by an enemy submarine while operating in conjunction with the Palestine column. Thirty-three men from the two vessels are missing.

Russian Situation Obscure.
The international situation in Russia still remains obscure, although dispatches sent out by the Russian Telegram bureau assert that Premier Kerensky again is in control in Petrograd, other reports are to the effect that he has set up his government in Moscow and that fighting still continues in the capital. No advances have been forthcoming from provisional government sources.

GERMAN INTRIGUE IN ITALY.
Washington, Nov. 14.—Light is thrown on hitherto explained references to German intrigue in the ranks of the Italian army by an official dispatch received here today from Rome. It tells how on the eve of their great offensive the Germans circulated among the soldiers at certain parts of the Italian front, newspapers carrying sensational stories of rebellions in Italian provinces, of English soldiers shooting down women and children, and of French cavalrymen riding over the bodies of agitators.

In further explanation of the breakdown of the Italian defense, the message says Italian-speaking Bulgarians and Croats in Italian uniforms penetrating the lines on the eve of the offensive, caused great confusion by telephone orders for the abandonment of important positions.

London, Nov. 14.—One British merchant vessel of more than 1,600 tons was sunk by mine or submarine last week, according to the weekly statement of shipping losses issued this evening. This is the low record since Germany began her submarine campaign.

Five vessels of less than 1,600 tons and one fishing boat were sunk during the week.

EX-SENATOR PETTIGREW A DERELICT

Indicted for Violation of Espionage Act and Arrest Is Imminent.

OBSTRUCTING DRAFT CHARGE PREFERRED

Reply to Pettigrew's Question
Why He Had Not Been Arrested Is Not.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Former United States Senator H. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota, indicted on a charge of violation of the espionage act, had not been arrested by last evening. He said he thought it not likely that he would be arrested here, as it was known that he intended to return to South Dakota within a few days.

Aberdeen, S. D., Nov. 15.—Robert P. Stewart, United States district attorney for South Dakota, announced here today that a warrant for the arrest of former United States Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota on an indictment charging violation of the espionage act would be served immediately upon Pettigrew, who is now in Chicago.

Mr. Stewart announced that Pettigrew would be brought back to South Dakota to stand trial. The indictment charges the former senator with attempting to obstruct the selective draft and with making anti-war utterances contrary to the provisions of the espionage law.

Although Pettigrew was indicted several weeks ago at Sioux Falls by a federal grand jury, Mr. Stewart explained, a warrant had not been issued for his arrest because he understood Mr. Pettigrew was ill in a Chicago hospital.

NO SYMPATHY FOR BELGIUM.
Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 15.—Richard Franklin Pettigrew, former United States senator from South Dakota, several weeks ago announced in Chicago that he had been advised unofficially of his indictment by the federal government under the espionage act. Officials here refused to confirm the report of Pettigrew's indictment, as under the law grand jury indictments may not be revealed until a warrant has been issued and the arrest made.

The announcement of District Attorney Stewart came after Senator Pettigrew had issued a statement last night in Chicago asking why he had not been arrested, if indicted. Among some of Senator Pettigrew's statements on the war, it is said, is one that, "Belgium deserves no sympathy."

MEATLESS TUESDAY SAVES THOUSANDS OF POUNDS OF FOOD

Washington, Nov. 15.—Introduction of "meatless Tuesdays" in hotels and restaurants has resulted in the saving by one great chain of restaurants of seven tons of meat weekly, reports today to the food administration shows this includes about 4,500 pounds of hog meat and 8,500 pounds of beef.

One New York hotel reports that during October it curtailed its consumption of flour by 14 barrels as the result of "wheatless Wednesdays."

AVAILABLE FUEL FIFTY MILLION TONS DEFICIENT

Big Increase in Production Fails to Meet the Consumption Increase.

ENORMOUS SUPPLY FOR NAVY AND FACTORIES

Wherever Unnecessary Use of Coal Threatens War Industries
Abatement Will Come.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The 1917 coal shortage is put at 50,000,000 tons in estimates completed today by the fuel administration. Although production of bituminous and anthracite, together, has jumped 50,000,000 tons, consumption, it is declared, has increased at least 100,000,000 tons.

Immediate measures to meet the situation planned by Fuel Administrator Garfield include curtailment of shipments to non-essential industries, priority orders designed to increase the car supply and a campaign for coal conservation in manufacturing establishments and households.

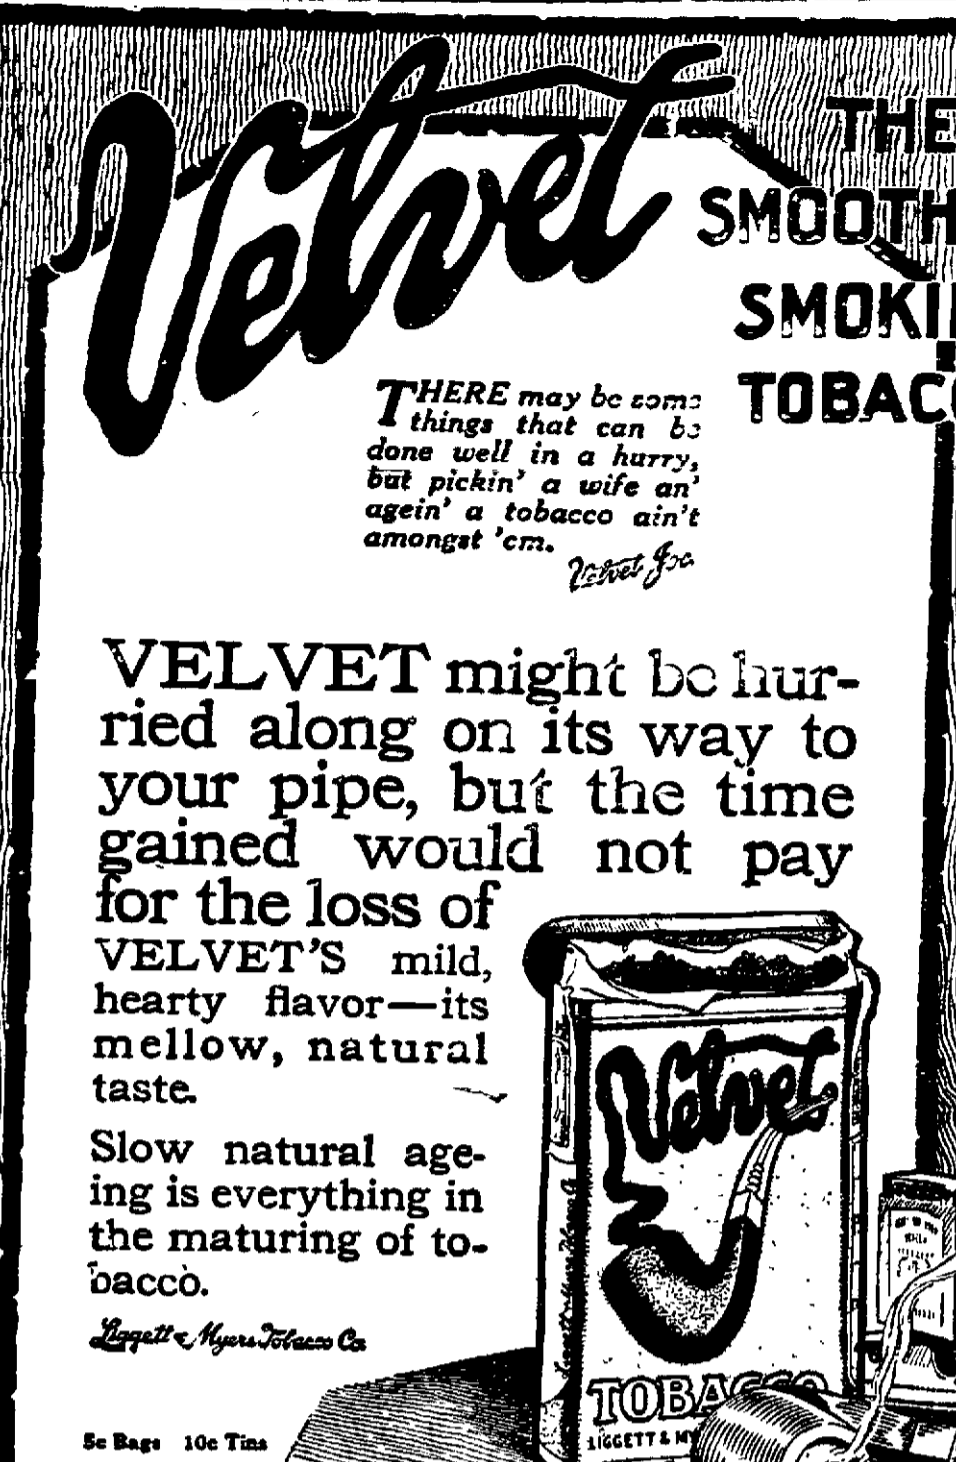

Previous statements from the fuel administration had indicated the belief that the increased production might meet the enlarged demand. Munitions plants, however, are said to be using fully 50 per cent more coal than they used a year ago. And other lines of industry, stimulated by war conditions, are demanding nearly as large an increase in their supplies.

Supply of Consumers.
"The fuel administration is determined," said Mr. Garfield today, "that war industries, public utilities and domestic consumers shall be supplied. To this end the fuel administration expects the co-operation of every coal user in the United States. The fuel administration will use all of its authority to prevent the waste of fuel and the unnecessary use of coal. Domestic users will be urged to conserve their supplies."

"Wherever the unnecessary use of coal in industry threatens to impair war industry, the fuel administration will see that the war needs are all filled. All activities which are unnecessary to the maintenance of the military or economic efficiency will have to give way by curtailment to the necessities of war, and this must be accomplished without undue curtailment of the domestic supply."

"This policy is expected to relieve not only the demand for coal, but a part of the enormous demands on the transportation facilities of the country."

Demand by Manufacturers.
Mr. Garfield illustrated the increased demand for coal by pointing to the requirements of the Bethlehem Steel company, which is consuming this year 3,000,000 tons more than it took in 1916. The demands of the government, including the requirements of the fighting forces of the army and navy, jumped this year from 2,000,000 to 8,000,000 tons. The requirements of public utilities companies have increased about 33 per cent. Most of this increase was due to the increased use of power by munitions plants. Solution of the car shortage problem, officials believe, will do as much toward increasing the supply to meet the demand as will curtailment of industry, although the best possible use of transportation facilities still would leave the country many millions of tons short of fuel. Curtailment, therefore, will be enforced to the point where consumption and production are balanced.
